

CAMILLE SHAVON

- Hair Expressions
- 565 N. Main Street
- Bolivar, TN. 38008
- (731) 217-2006

Education

- Pazazz School of Cosmetology (1988)
- .Pazazz School of Cosmetology Instructor Training (1992)
- .Peneils Study of Stanislavki (Method Acting) 1997
- .Peneils Creative Writing Class 1997-98
- .Jackson State Community College 1999

Work Experience

- Opening of salon, Hair Expressions 1990. Hair Expressions serves clients in Hardeman, Madison, Dyer as well as Shelby County.
- Produced first ever Hair Show in Hardeman County Camille Shavon has sponsored and produced Hair/ Fashion Shows in Hardeman/Madison County ; 1992-1999.
- Received Instructor License in 1992-taught hands on classes in Madison and surrounding counties.
- During Ms. Shavon's career, she has excelled with platform artistry work for hair companies in Madison/Shelby Counties, Atlanta, GA.(Bronner Bros Hair Show)
Camille Shavon worked for Peneil Productions on an Independent Film entitled "Street Rules" in 1997 and assisted with script production, HMU..
- Camille Shavon worked for Chicago Studio City through Karen Peak Casting and made appearances on the T.V. sitcom "Cupid" in 1998.
- In 2005, Shavon joined the West Tennessee Examiner with the column "Hair Talk". Ms. Shavon's thirty plus year experience in Cosmetology and Instruction afforded her the opportunity to produce this column.
 - In 2007, Contributing writer for Grace Magazine.
 - In 2011, Contributing Writer for Spirit Magazine.
 -

In 2011, Established “Hair Talk” with Camille Shavon Radio Segment on WKKX and WOJG Radio Stations.

In 2019, Key Hair and Make-Up Artist on Award Nominated Film Short “Illegal Rose” starring Jasmine Guy. Director Deborah Riley Draper

□ Awards & Achievements

- Camille Shavon is a known and respected columnist by the CEO’s of major Publications & Hair Show Producers such as the Bronner Brothers Hair Show in Atlanta, GA. and The Proud Lady Hair Show in Chicago, Illinois, Jocelyn Amador (Editor in Chief of Sophisticates Black Hair Magazine). Administrator of Sophisticates Black Hair Magazine Linda Rolle and the former Managing and pioneering Editor of Ebony Magazine, Lynn Norment
- Camille Shavon further assisted the Hardeman County Community in 2008 by developing and chairing a committee including Hardeman County Mayor Willie Spencer in the production of “A Victory Celebration”-honoring the 1940-1941 Allen White girls basketball team who made history as the first African American girls team to win the National Negro League Championship and published articles in the West TN Examiner and Bolivar Bulletin Times.
- Camille Shavon partnerd with the APTA (Association for the Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities) in 2009 as well as 2010 with the Production of Black History Exhibits featured at the Little Court House Museum in Hardeman County and making presentations to the elementary schools of Hardeman County.
- Throughout the years, Camille Shavon has been featured in a local Newspapers(Jackson Sun, WTE, Bolivar Bulletine) and Hair Magazine including “Sophisticates Black Hair Care Magazine” in November 2009 edition. Sophisticates is the leading African American Hair Magazine in the country.
- Hair Expressions/Camille Shavon has been actively involved with Rose Hill Middle School(Madison County) as a Partner in Education receiving the Golden Apple Award in 2010 and 2011.
- On February 26, 2010, Hair Expression won the “Jewel” Award (Outstanding African American Small Business) from the Madison County African American Chamber of Commerce.
- August 2010 Celebrated 20 years in Business and received a Proclamation from the State of Tennessee (State Rep Johnny Shaw and House Speaker Kent Williams)
- Honorary Chairperson of the 2011 JEWEL Awards (Madison County AACC).
- Established two radio segments which began January of 2011 entitled Hair Talk with Camille Shavon on WFKX and WOJG Radio Stations.
- Received Outstanding Business Award from the Hardeman County Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Parade Committee.
- 2011 First African American Director at the Hardeman County Arts Council of the production Driving Miss Daisy . Assisted with HMU.
-
-

