

About Us

McGuffin Catering is a full-service production catering service. With operations in Los Angeles, New York/New Jersey, Portland, and Nashville. We're ready to take care of your catering needs from coast to coast.

Mission Statement

- To create a catering service for film production that truly blends the needs of production with full-service, quality catering.
- McGuffin Catering understands the demands and flexibility of film and television productions. We are aware of these challenges and pride ourselves on offering high quality food, diverse menu options and exceptional service.
- McGuffin shops daily to ensure local quality and freshness are never compromised. We guarantee meals are fresh when served regardless of production schedule delays and location constraints.
- We know that each show is unique. We offer solutions to adapt to a show's individual needs.
- We pride ourselves on our commitment to contracted bids.
- Client communication is key. We want to fully understand our client's needs and preferences.

We appreciate the opportunity to share a proposal for your upcoming project and a list of clients.