

Dr. Susan George Murrmann is the co-founder and visionary behind the concept of 360° care for women. Dr. Murrmann and her partners rebranded the successful McDonald Murrmann Center for Women's Health into McDonald Murrmann Center for Women's Health 360° to encompass all aspects of women's health, including aesthetic services. She believes that women's healthcare should be integrative and include all aspects of health should focus on taking care of entire body, not just gynecological issues.

McDonald Murrmann Center for Wellness and Health 360° is now a one stop shop in health and wellness for all ages and genders with a focus on hormone health, wellness screening, weight loss, nutrition, IV therapy, aesthetics, and looking at the entire patient as a whole and encourage them to live their best life.

Dr. Murrmann is a board certified gynecologist, certified in peptide medicine and fasting, nutrition, and longevity medicine, and an expert in minimally invasive surgery, regenerative medicine, and aesthetic gynecological surgery.

She graduated from the Chicago Medical School (Rosalind Franklin School of Medicine) and is board certified in Obstetrics and Gynecology. Dr. Murrmann also completed her fellowship in American Board of Antiaging, Regenerative Medicine, and Functional Medicine.
