

TRADE SHOW AND EVENT LOGISTICS

Team Worldwide® has solutions to meet every logistical and compliance need for our clients. With over 45 Branch offices in North America and partnership connections with a global reach, our experienced Team Employees continue to provide efficient, cost-effective solutions for your business.

Through over 43 years of experience, our Branch offices offer well thought out solutions that fit exhibitors, large conventions and complex event logistics. We ensure a seamless experience, including handling:

- Scheduling - we are fully operational and can quickly present solutions around your timeframe
- Creation - our staff enjoys arranging things in creative ways so you have choices that fit the experience, timeframe and budget you want
- Logistics - we are experts when it comes to managing the logistics and we pride ourselves on strategically thinking through the approach
- Coordination - we plan out each component and stay on top of the moving pieces throughout the timeline
- Delivery - with access to air, trucks, and even ocean, we can build out an efficient plan
- Recovery - we provide our clients a hassle-free experience and own recovery details after the event ends

Whether a small private event or an industry-wide trade show, Team delivers the trusted service to meet our client's needs. Visit www.teamww.com for information.
