Ami McConnell founded and runs WriterFest Nashville, a gathering for writers of book, song, and film. She's a publishing consultant who formerly served as Editor-in-Chief & VP at Simon & Schuster, acquired and edited at HarperCollins, and launched a successful fiction imprint. Today she works with artists of all stripes to create bestselling books including New York Times, USA Today, and Wall Street Journal bestsellers. For kicks and giggles she hosts The WriterFest Podcast and serves as President of the Nashville Women's National Book Association.
