

LENI SETH GARRISON

Director | Manager | Photographer

PROFILE

I am a filmmaker and project manager with years of experience in all stages of production and management. I collaborate with artists and businesses as well as create my own projects. I have worked on professional film sets with the Hallmark Channel and alongside a few notable celebrities.

I have strong communication skills and work closely with clients and customers to achieve their vision. I am comfortable on the set, in the writer's room, and on the editing floor, freelancing 2020-2025.
